

Brunei

Sequestrants	Products	Maximum Amounts	References
Calcium disodium ethylenediamine-tetraacetate (EDTA)	Canned fish, including crustaceans	250 ppm	Public health (food) regulations revised edition 2001 (1 st February 2001)

Preservative	Products	Maximum Amounts	References
Sulphur dioxide	Budu, Oyster sauce and fish sauce	400 ppm	Public health (food) regulations revised edition 2001 (1 st February 2001)
Benzoic acid	Budu, Oyster sauce and fish sauce	1,000 ppm
	Fish paste	750 ppm
Sodium nitrite	Fish, smoked and cured	10 ppm

Heavy Metal	Products	Maximum Amounts	References
Arsenic	Fish and fish product	1.0 ppm	Public health (food) regulations revised edition 2001 (1 st February 2001)
Lead		2.0 ppm
Copper		30 ppm
Tin		40 ppm
Zinc		100 ppm
Mercury		0.05 ppm
Cadmium		1.0 ppm
Antimony		1.0 ppm

Brunei

Food additive	Products	Maximum Amounts	References
Phosphate	Canned fish	0.3% (calculated as phosphorous pentoxide)	Public health (food) regulations revised edition 2001 (1 st February 2001)

Remark :

Fish shall be any edible and wholesome part of any marine or brackish water or freshwater animal, other than a mammal, that is ordinarily used for human consumption, and shall include crustaceans and molluscs and other aquatic life.